Heavy Vehicle Driver Regulations in Australia are regulated as per the National Heavy Vehicle Regulator (NHVR).

All parties involved in the use and operation of a heavy vehicle have a level of responsibility. This includes everyone from the scheduler to the driver, the passenger to the person requesting the booking. It is referred to as the Chain of Responsibility (COR). No one in the COR can dismiss their responsibility. For an organisation booking a vehicle, it means is that you are required to acknowledge the parameters in which a heavy vehicle can operate within (i.e. as detailed below regarding driver hours, breaks, etc.)

- Drivers may operate the vehicle for a maximum of 15 hours, including a mandatory 45-minute break (Depot to Depot)
- Drivers must observe a minimum of 10 consecutive off-duty hours before resuming service.
- Weekly driving limits are enforced as follows:
 - Maximum of 60 hours within any 7-day period
 - Maximum of 70 hours within any 8-day period

Overtime Charges

All vehicles operating under requested additional service hours will be billed at a hourly surplus charge rate, based on an 8-hour shift, and invoiced in 15-minute increments.

Airport Pick Ups

All Vehicles operate with the following complimentary waiting times at airports:

- 30 minutes for domestic arrivals from scheduled arrival time
- 60 minutes for international arrivals from scheduled arrival time

Any waiting time beyond the complimentary window will be billed in 15-minute increments at the applicable hourly surplus charge rate.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations made 14 days or more prior to the scheduled service date will be exempt from cancellation fees

Bookings cancelled greater than 4 days' notice prior to travel have a cancellation fee of 50% of the total booking

Bookings cancelled between 4 days prior to Travel and the Day of Travel have a cancellation fee of 80% of the total booking.

Bookings cancelled within 24 hours of travel will be charged the full booking fee

Knock Out (KO) Cancellation policy

A standard 14-day cancellation policy will remain in place for all teams booking in advance of KO stage qualification.

However, in the case that a team is eliminated (either during the Group Stage or in subsequent KO match), they may cancel their booking with no penalty, provided at least 48 hours' notice is given, and as long as the cancellation is the result of being knocked out of the tournament. We understand that TMS will absorb any financial risk associated with these cases, and we appreciate your support.

Bookings Made After KO Qualification

If a team waits to book until they know they have qualified for the next KO round, those bookings will be subject to availability and the standard 24-hour cancellation policy will apply, if the cancellation is the result of being knocked out of the tournament. The normal 14 day cancellation policy would be in effect if, for example, the team decided to reduce or eliminate the number of vehicles booked unrelated to leaving the tournament.
